CHURCH AND HOME INSURANCE

OUR NINETEENTH YEAR

One Hundred and Fifty Million Dollars ($150,000,000.00) is a pretty large sum, even in these days of big things, and yet the amount of protection we have granted in our nearly nineteen years of history exceeds that; over Thirty-Seven and One-Half Million Dollars ($37,500,000.00) is now in effect, by far the largest amount since we began business.

No policyholder has had to wait a day for a dollar that was due and unpaid for losses, although our losses have aggregated over One Million Dollars ($1,000,000.00.)

Churches, Parsonages, their contents, Schools, Ministers' Property and the Home Property of the people who build and sustain the churches are insured against Fire, Lightning and Windstorm at cost.

Premiums in easy annual installments. Savings go to our over 18,000 policyholders, who own the company.

REPORT No. 1 OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

RANDOLPH-MACON SYSTEM

The reports of the several institutions of the Randolph-Macon System to the Board of Education are of vital concern and show the following interesting facts:

Randolph-Macon College, Ashland, Va., has property valued at $149,129.60 and an endowment of $441,741.88, an increase of $36,296.68. There are 17 professors and instructors, 4 officers, 186 students, 127 from the Virginia Conference and 46 from the Baltimore Conference; 37 students are preparing for the ministry, 13 of whom are from the Baltimore Conference, an increase of 4 over last year. The College is doing excellent work, and should receive the cordial support of all our people.

Randolph-Macon Woman's College, Lynchburg, Va., reports property valued at $456,009.56, with an endowment of $387,000.00. There are 50 professors and instructors, 14 officers, 602 students, 58 from the bounds of the Baltimore Conference. 31 States are represented and 11 different religious denominations, distributed as follows: Methodist, 244; Presbyterian, 112; Baptist, 86; Episcopalian, 80; Christian, 28; Lutheran, 10; Jewish, 6; Roman Catholic, 5; Congregationalist, 6; Reformed, 2; United Brethren, 1.

One of the most interesting features of the report is the fact that 487 of the students are enrolled in the Y. W. C. A., 11 in the Student Volunteer Movement, 429 in Bible Study Classes, and 345 in Mission Study Classes.

We also note at the recent triennial session of the United Chapters of the Phi Beta Kappa, the oldest and most famous scholarship fraternity in the United States, a charter was granted to the Woman's College without a dissenting vote. This coveted honor is another recognition of the high standing of the College among the great educational institutions of the country.

Further: Randolph-Macon Woman's College is about to complete the first twenty-five years of her existence—a mere span in the life of a College or University; but in that brief space of time she has accomplished much for God and humanity. Today her opportunities for service are greater than ever before. In order that she may meet the new demands and assume the new responsibilities which are hers both by reason of her splendid history and the high position she occupies in the educational world, we declare ourselves in hearty sympathy with the Board of Trustees in their resolve to raise $500,000.00—$300,000 to be added to her permanent endowment fund and the remainder to provide for additional buildings and equipment.

Randolph-Macon Academy, Bedford City Va. This institution has property valued at $130,000. There are 9 teachers, 4 officers, 213 students, 5 from the Baltimore Conference. There are 10 ministerial students, all from the Virginia Conference.

Randolph-Macon Institute, Danville, Virginia, has property valued at $120,000; 22 instructors, 4 officers, 329 students, an increase of 41 over last year, making the largest enrollment in the history of the Institute.

Randolph-Macon Academy, Front Royal, Va., has property valued at $110,000. There are 6 instructors, 1 officer, 108 students, 60 from the Baltimore Conference, 6 ministerial students, all of whom are from our own Conference.

We are glad to note the excellent work done during the year by Rev. H. H. Sherman, not alone in securing $12,159.74 in subscriptions to the construction debt fund, $6,434.73 of which has been paid, but also in bringing the Academy in closer contact with our people, thereby gaining for it larger recognition.

The position occupied by this Academy is strategic. Not only are there more than forty ministers of our Conference on the effective list who received academic training there, but more than ever is the Academy necessary to conserve our Methodist youth. We must see to it that the remainder of the indebtedness is raised as speedily as possible and the institution put upon a secure basis.

We recommend to our people as a safe investment, and one that will be of great benefit to our institutions, an Annuity Bond, which will be issued on the payment of any specified sum by the Trustees of Randolph-Macon College for any of the schools of the system.

Appreciating the interest of the Baltimore Southern Methodist in Christian education, we respectfully request the Editor to give prominence to the work of our schools and to urge our people to support and patronize them.

OUR UNIVERSITIES.

We have had before us the report of the Educational Commission on our two universities—Emory University, at Atlanta, Georgia, and The Southern Methodist University, at Dallas, Texas. From this report we incorporate the following for the information of this Conference:

"The Southern Methodist University, our University for the region west of the Mississippi River, has had a most successful year. Its total assets now amount to $2,650,000. Much of this is in real estate, which when sold will probably bring even a larger amount than is now indicated by the foregoing figures.

"During the year just closed the University has operated the School of Liberal Arts, the School of Fine Arts, and the School of Theology. In all these departments there has been an enrollment of 751 students, which number does not include 156 students enrolled in the summer normal school. This record we regard as unsurpassed in the history of Southern institutions, and we feel sure it will give great joy to the Church.

"The University has four buildings completed, and three have been in use during the past year. Others will be added as necessities arise and resources permit.

"Attention is called to the fact that on April 4 and 5, 1917, there will be held an Educational Conference in Dallas which will be specially directed to the promotion of the interest of the University. The Educational Commission will hold a meeting in connection with this Educational Conference.

"Emory University also, our connectional institution east of the Mississippi River, has had a prosperous year. Three departments have been in operation, namely, the School of Liberal Arts, the School of Medicine, and the School of Theology, and all these departments have been very successful. The total enrollment in all of them was 761 students, not counting the students who have attended the School of Theology during the summer term. The assets of the University have been largely increased during the year past.

"The City of Atlanta has made good its pledge of $500,000. The Methodists of Georgia have undertaken a campaign throughout the State, which is being successfully prosecuted. The Methodists of Alabama are undertaking to raise $50,000 to erect upon the campus a beautiful building to be called 'Alabama Hall,' and the Methodists of Mississippi have undertaken to raise $50,000 for 'the Lamar School of Law.'

"We are glad to report that Mr. J. J. Gray, Jr., a consecrated layman of our Church who resides at Rockdale, Tenn., has made a contribution of $50,000 to the erection of a much needed building in connection with the School of Medicine. Besides the gift of Brother Gray, another generous contribution has been promised.

"Four buildings on the campus of the University in Atlanta will be completed and are now in use. They are the building for the School of Theology, the building for the Lamar School of Law, and two elegant dormitories called, respectively, 'Dobbs Hall' and 'Winship Hall' in honor of the generous laymen whose gifts provided for their erection. It is proposed to begin at an early day other buildings as rapidly as resources can be commanded and plans can be drawn.

"There is pressing need for the buildings required for the use of the Teachers' College, which will be a part of the University.

"The total assets of the University now approach the sum of $3,000,000, and it is hoped that they will be speedily increased so as to provide well for all the work expected of the institution.

"A little more than two years have elapsed since the last General Conference adjourned, and the Church was called upon to face the fact that it was without an institution of real university grade. In this brief time over five millions of dollars have been secured for our two Universities, and student bodies have been gathered which exceed

1,400 in number. God has truly blessed the labor of our hands, and the Church may well give thanks and take courage for the future."

The plan of campaign now in operation by the Educational Commission contemplates not only the collection of funds sufficient to put these universities upon a basis of financial strength equal to the great Universities of this or other lands, but also to incorporate into them the spirit and genius of Southern Methodism. Hence there will be the Alabama Building contributed by the Alabama Conference, the building for the L. Q. C. Lamar School of Law by the Mississippi Conference, the Hall for the School of Missions by the Virginia Conference, the McTyeire Memorial Building by the Holston, Tennessee, Memphis, Louisville and Kentucky Conferences. The Methodists of Georgia are at work raising one million dollars in addition to the contributions of Mr. Asa Candler and the City of Atlanta, to increase the endowment fund.

The part assigned to our Conference, in connection with the West Virginia Conference, is $25,000.00 for the endowment of the Alpheus W. Wilson Library of Theology.

We recommend that the Conference most heartily endorse the plan of campaign of the Educational Commission. We shall consider it an honor and a privilege to co-operate in every practicable way in the effort to endow the Alpheus W. Wilson Library of Theology.

THE SOUTHERN SEMINARY SYSTEM.

The Southern Seminary System, which includes the Southern Seminary at Buena Vista, Va., and the Alleghany Collegiate Institute at Alderson, W. Va., is reported to us as in a prosperous condition. Under the able administration of Rev. E. H. Rowe, Principal, these schools occupy an important place in the educational work within the bounds of our Conference territory. These schools are conducted upon a high plane, both as to literary culture and spiritual training. The late Dr. J. E. Armstrong said to one of his District Conferences: "The Southern Seminary seems to me the hope for the education of the Daughters of the Baltimore Conference."

We heartily recommend these schools to the patronage of our people.

We recommend the endorsement of the appointment of Mr. A. M. Gilbert as a member of the Board of Directors in the place of Rev. J. S. Engle, deceased.

MINISTERIAL SUPPLY AND TRAINING.

The report of Dr. R. H. Bennett of this department is most gratifying in every respect. The system adopted by the Church to increase the efficiency of our ministry is wise, and its administration is being conducted under efficient and consecrated leadership. The work done by the Correspondence School is not only faithfully performed, but is of such a character as to be of real inspirational value to the undergraduates taking their Theological training there.

We would suggest that each preacher give prayerful attention to the provision of the Discipline calling for a sermon in each congregation at least once a year on "The Call to the Ministry," and that Vocational Day be observed in every church. It is of the greatest importance that all our undergraduates become enrolled in the Correspondence School. We call special attention of the Committee on Admissions, and of the Committees of Examination to the law of the Church which requires that the educational qualifications for admission on trial into the Conference, shall not be lower than the standard for admission into the junior year of our colleges.

Dr. H. P. Hamill, Secretary-Treasurer for Ministerial Supply and Training, submitted the following financial statement for the Conference year 1916-1917, which has been duly examined by the Auditing Committee and found to be correct:

Receipts.

Balance on hand, as per last report.....	$ 61.05
Received on Assessment by Conference.....	692.00
Received from Public Collections and Private Subscriptions....	873.10
Received from Other Sources.....	456.24
Total Receipts.	$2,082.39

Disbursements.

Loans and Donations to Students.....	$1,555.00
Traveling Expenses—Sec. Treas. & Chairman.....	30.25
Incidentals.	13.54
Bills Payable.	400.00
Interest on Bills Payable.....	8.00
Total Disbursements.	<hr/> 2,006.79
Balance on hand.....	$ 75.60

The Board unites in the following recommendations as to Ministerial Supply and Training:

(1) That hereafter appropriations for the first year, in aid of ministerial students, be paid to the financial officer of the institution attended rather than to the student.

(2) That all applications for aid be in the hands of the Committee not later than August 15th, each year.

(3) That when for any reason a student receiving aid from the Committee on Ministerial Supply and Training leaves an institution, the head of the institution shall immediately notify this Committee.

(4) That the Presiding Elders and Preachers in Charge be earnestly requested to use especial care in issuing recommendations to applicants for aid.

(5) That the general public be advised of the willingness of the Board of Trustees of the Randolph-Macon College to accept donations and bequests by will or otherwise, and annuities, to be held by said Board of Trustees—the income from these funds to be administered by our Board of Education for the benefit of Ministerial Supply and Training.

ASSESSMENTS RECOMMENDED.

We recommend an assessment for Education of $10,021.00, to be divided as follows:

Randolph-Macon College.	$6,000.00
Ministerial Supply and Training.....	1,000.00
Educational Extension.	3,021.00
	$10,021.00

The proceeds to be divided pro rata among these causes.

APPOINTMENTS RECOMMENDED.

We recommend the appointment of Dr. H. P. Hamill as Conference Secretary-Treasurer of Education; Dr. J. A. Kern as Professor in Randolph-Macon College; Rev. H. H. Sherman as Field Secretary for Randolph-Macon Academy at Front Royal; R. D. McNeer and W. S. Nicholson as students at Emory University; W. W. Beasley as student at Randolph-Macon College.

Dr. H. P. Hamill, Judge E. D. Newman, Revs. H. H. Sherman, J. C. Hawk and J. W. Smith are recommended as a Committee on Ministerial Supply and Training, with the usual duties.

We would call the attention of any young men who are called to preach to the liberal conditions on which we make them donations and loans, whereby they may secure adequate preparation for the great work of the Christian Ministry, and urge that they avail themselves of this assistance.

S. R. PRITCHARD, Secretary.

H. H. SHERMAN, President.

REPORT No. 2 OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

We hereby pledge to the Randolph-Macon Academy of Front Royal, Va., the cordial support of our people, and assure its management of our earnest purpose to fully provide for the liquidation of this debt, by such methods as may seem best to the Conference and to the Board of Trustees of Randolph-Macon College.

S. R. PRITCHARD, Secretary.

BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION—REPORT No. 1.

We rejoice in the fact that actual work has been begun in the erection of the Representative Church Building for all of our people in Washington, D. C. This work was originally projected by our Conference, and we are thankful that the Church at large has responded so liberally that the success of the enterprise is now assured.

We recommend that the former actions of this Conference wherein the duty of its members to pay $15,000.00 additional to the erection of this church was recognized, and in order to raise this amount, we further recommend that $2,000.00 be added to our church extension assessment for ten consecutive years, and that the funds resulting from such assessment be applied in the usual way, with the provision that the first $1,500.00 of the amount at the disposal of the Conference Board be paid annually for ten consecutive years to the Treasurer of the Representative Church Building Fund.

We further recommend that any individual gift made outside of the membership of Mt. Vernon Place Church, Washington, D. C., be credited on the $15,000.00.

We further recommend that our preachers take an early collection and forward the same to the Treasurer of the Conference Board of Church Extension, in order that it may be ready for use to meet bills which will come due in the course of construction of said building.

A. W. MEARS, Secretary.

CLAUDE M. HESSER, President.

BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION—REPORT No. 2.

Resolved, We have heard with pleasure of the movement to erect a church in the City of Baltimore to the memory of our beloved Bishop, the late Alpheus W. Wilson. We feel the plans thus far carried out in the securing of a lot in a most desirable section of the City of Baltimore must commend themselves to all Methodists. We furthermore appreciate the aid rendered us in this enterprise by the General Board of Church Extension, whose wise counsel and generous financial assistance have made the present situation possible.

We heartily endorse this enterprise, and commend it to our General Board, as well as to our people, hoping that the proposed memorial will soon become an established fact.

A. W. MEARS, Secretary.

CLAUDE M. HESSER, President.

BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION--REPORT No. 3.

GENERAL BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

Your Conference Board has had before it for consideration the report of our Corresponding Secretary, Rev. W. F. McMurry, D.D. It is to us a source of gratification that the cause of Church Extension is taking its rightful place among our people generally. We are convinced there is not a more important cause in the whole Church, and that our people need only to know about it that it may receive due consideration.

Dr. McMurry is to be congratulated in the far reaching and effective publicity given to this work. The gospel of Church Extension has been preached in poetry and prose, fiction and history, story and biography. Perhaps the most notable addition to Church Extension Literature is "David Morton, a Biography," by Bishop E. E. Hoss. A part of the first edition of this volume was presented to the Board by Mrs. Hannah W. Morton, the widow of the late David Morton, the Board's first Corresponding Secretary. The proceeds of the sale of the book will be added to the David Morton Memorial Loan Fund.

RECEIPTS ON ASSESSMENTS.

$205,112.41 was received last year on assessments, which shows an increase of $17,096 over the previous year. For the year ending March 31st, 1916, the increase in the Loan Fund Capital was $133,192.89. This is the largest increase reported in any single year of the Board's history; $30,000 more, and the goal of $1,000,000 for the quadrennium will be reached.

The following achievements deserve notable mention: First—The completion and dedication of our new Church Extension Home. Second—The great increase in the Loan Fund Capital and assurance that the goal of $1,000,000 will be reached very soon.

CONFERENCE BOARD—RECEIPTS ON ASSESSMENTS.

The Baltimore Conference was assessed this year $9,540.00 for Church Extension and paid on assessment $7,206.00; which is an increase of $206.00 over last year. The Board forwarded 50 per cent. of the total amount received to the General Board of Church Extension, and had $3,603.00 to distribute for our local work. Twelve churches and parsonages made application for aid, amounting to $6,025.00. The hardest work of this Board is the distribution of this sum, which only meets half of a moderate demand.

BALTIMORE CONFERENCE LOAN FUND.

This Conference has contributed $79,844.64 to the General Loan Fund, and easily leads all of the Conferences in Methodism, but in all of the years of her history has had no Loan Fund of her own. We rejoice that we have written this new chapter in our Church Extension history and that we have started our Loan Fund this year with $1,026.00. We feel sure that when our people know of this Fund, the great need for it, and its far reaching possibilities, they will count it a privilege to contribute to it.

THINGS THAT WILL HELP CHURCH EXTENSION.

First—We have Literature of every description and in most attractive form; use it freely. If your charge paid in full this year. write Dr. W. F. McMurry, Louisville, Ky., and get "David Morton, a Biography": you will be thrilled as you read it. Second--Send early for applications for aid. Answer definitely all questions, and return them at least ten days before Conference. Third—Mention the Conference Loan Fund in the public service of the Church and in the homes of our people, and let us fix $2,000.00 as our goal for the present year. Fourth--We again urge that our representatives be heard in the District Conferences.

REPORT OF EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD.

We, the Epworth League Board of the Baltimore Conference, beg leave to submit the following report:

We note with pleasure the gain of over 9,000 members during the past year, as reported by our Central Office; and, while our own Conference records a slight decrease in membership, we believe the work of the Leagues is advancing.

While the Leagues of the whole Church raised last year for missions thirty thousand dollars, in our own Conference they raised nearly two thousand dollars, and we have large hopes that the twelve hundred dollars pledged for the Africa Special is but the beginning of a fund that will flood Africa with the light of our Gospel.

We rejoice that the Epworth Era, exclusive of the salary of the Assistant General Secretary, is not only self-supporting but on a paying basis, with a circulation of twenty-six thousand.

The Summer Conferences and District League Institutes are increasing in popularity and usefulness. It is with great pleasure that we report the unqualified success of our League Conference held at Charles Town last summer, and a number of Institutes in our various Districts, under the leadership of Mr. Theodore C. Thomas, President of our Epworth League Conference, and his loyal assistants. We trust all the Chapters of our Conference may be represented in the Annual Conference to be held in Winchester, Va., June 28-July 1 of this year. We acknowledge hereby the report of Brother Thomas and make it a part of this report.

We recommend: That in every District of our Conference a League Institute be held and that the work of the Leagues be more fully brought before our several District Conferences; and that leaders of our League work be encouraged to attend the Lake Junaluska Institute at the Southern Methodist Assembly Grounds, near Waynesville, N. C., July 17-22.

We recommend a fuller co-operation between our Pastors and the Conference League Secretaries, especially in the work of our Junior Leagues for the children.

We urge that the Anniversary Day offerings ordered by the Discipline be taken in every Chapter; that the Chapter assessments be paid more promptly; that the Africa Special offering be encouraged, and that all money be hereafter sent to Mr. Roger Manuel, Treasurer of the Baltimore Conference Epworth League, of Charlestown, W. Va., who will give receipts for all remittances and make proper distribution thereof as authorized by the Board.

We request the Editor of our Baltimore Southern Methodist to continue the courtesy extended us in granting a page of the paper for representing the work; the Committee on Public Worship of the next session of our Conference to grant us as usual Wednesday evening of Conference week for our Board Anniversary.

H. P. BAKER, Secretary.

JOHN PAUL TYLER, President.

REPORT OF THE BIBLE BOARD.

We believe the Bible Board represents the most vital need of mankind, the source of food for the soul. To publish the Bible and distribute it in all lands and to all peoples is the tremendous task of the Church of our Christ. Therefore we appeal to all of our preachers to earnestly and faithfully present the claim from every pulpit and in their pastoral work, so that every member may be educated to the great need and encouraged to make a liberal contribution to the same.

It is very gratifying to know that our collections for the American Bible Society have been increased over last year. A larger per cent. of the charges have taken the collections this year than last, but in spite of these facts the increase has not kept pace with the increased cost of production.

We urge upon our preachers and laymen the importance of this great work. Therefore, be it

Resolved, first: That the Baltimore Conference of the M. E. Church, South, which has always cherished a supreme regard for God's Word, and confidence in its efficiency and integrity of God's will, offers its gratitude to God for the results of over one hundred years of existence and effort of the American Bible Society;

Second: That the members of the Bible Board of each District be requested to represent this cause at their respective District Conferences;

Third: That contribution for the American Bible Society be taken not later than the month of September. Should any charge fail to report to the Treasurer by the first of November, the Treasurer shall write to the pastor for an explanation;

Fourth: That should there be sufficient reason for any congregation or individual contributing directly to an agent or local organization, a receipt shall be taken and sent to the Treasurer of the Conference Board;

Fifth: That receipts from the Treasurer of the Conference Board for moneys sent him during Conference year must be sent or brought to the Board as a voucher, at the ensuing session of the Conference;

Sixth: That all moneys collected for the Bible Board during the year be sent promptly to the Treasurer of the Board, Mr. N. R. Roberts, Kearneysville, West Virginia;

Seventh: That all reports shall be in, if possible, the first day of the Conference Session.

REPORT No. 2—BOARD OF MISSIONS.

THE WORK OF THE GENERAL AND THE CONFERENCE BOARD.

We are gratified to report a year of prosperity, both in the work of the General Board of Missions and of the Conference Board of Missions. The General Board has paid off about $100,000 of its indebtedness, and expects to pay the balance this year. Plans are being made to send out twenty new missionaries within the next eighteen months. A number of large special enterprises are either provided for, or partially provided for, which when executed will go to enforce and consolidate our work in nearly all fields.

Your Conference Board reports a year of splendid progress in all of our missionary work. Payments upon assessments for both Foreign and Home and Conference Missions are in advance of last year.

The assessments from the General Board for the coming year remain the same as last year, namely, for Foreign Missions, $15,900; for Home Missions, $5,099.

The assessment for Conference Missions has been reduced $2,040.

We were glad to have with us on our anniversary Rev. E. H. Rawlings, D.D., representing the General Board, and Rev. J. A. G. Shipley, of China. Their addresses were highly appreciated.

MISSION SPECIALS.

Conscious of the tremendous need for more funds to carry on the work of the Kingdom of God at home and abroad, and that our present assessment for foreign missions is totally inadequate to meet the need, we urge our preachers and people to do all in their power to secure from each charge a definite special for foreign missions.

THE FERRUM TRAINING SCHOOL.

Whereas, we have heard with deep interest the statement of Dr. B. M. Beckham, Principal of the Ferrum Training School, about the present work of the school and projected plans for the extension of its usefulness; and whereas, Dr. Beckham has promised that if our Conference will simply commend the movement and give him the right to raise what he can within our bounds by his own personal efforts, without our assuming of one dollar of responsibility, he will agree to educate without charge every boy and girl we have who wants to prepare for mission work, home or foreign; and that he will give as many as ten scholarships, paying board and tuition, to as many daughters or sons of our preachers, who are so situated that they cannot give their children the advantages of education such as will prepare them for college;

Resolved, That we recommend the Ferrum Training School to the people of our charges and urge our pastors to open their pulpits to the Principal, Dr. Beckham, and that our people respond with voluntary contributions as far as possible. This resolution carries with it no financial obligation on the part of the Conference.

NOMINATIONS AND RECOMMENDATIONS.

We nominate as the Committee on Evangelism the members of the Executive Committee of the Board of Missions.

We recommend the election of Judge E. D. Newman, of Woodstock, Virginia, as Conference Lay Leader.

We recommend to the Bishop, for appointment, Rev. J. Howard Wells as Conference Missionary Secretary, to fill this office in connection with a pastoral charge.

We recommend that all specials throughout the year go through the hands of our Conference Treasurer, Mr. J. E. Alexander, Alexandria, Va., that our Conference may get the proper credit.

We recommend that all money raised for Missions, both by our churches and our Sunday schools, be sent to our Conference Treasurer at least quarterly.

We recommend the use of the Duplex Envelope by all of our churches in raising the assessments.

We recommend that Friday night of our next Conference be the time for holding the missionary anniversary.

Our missionary year is identical with the calendar year, hence the above report covers the full year of 1916. The returns for the first quarter come in too late to make possible a report of work from March to March.

We are glad to announce a net gain of ten auxiliaries, of two hundred and eleven members, and of $2,120.27 sent to the Conference Treasurer in excess of the amount contributed in 1915. Thirty-four auxiliaries have attained places on the Conference Roll of Honor for general excellence, as against thirteen the preceding year. Four of our eight Districts—Baltimore, Washington, Rockingham and Moorefield—are on the Honor Roll of the Woman's Missionary Council for having had seventy-five per cent. of their auxiliaries observe the Week of Prayer.

Our Conference Pledge of $6,000 made at the Council Meeting at Atlanta last spring has been overpaid by $468.53, including the amount contributed for our two Day Schools. In addition, we support nine foreign scholarships and nine Bible Women. Our Baltimore City Mission Board employs a Deaconess and a City Missionary.

The Department of Study and Publicity has disseminated missionary information; that of Social Service has shown the need of applied practical Christianity, while the Supply Department has helped the unfortunate by providing the necessities of life. Much has been done, that cannot be tabulated in figures. The great work of the Woman's Missionary Council is made possible by the prayer, service and money of the loyal women in the auxiliaries; and it is to them that the Baltimore Conference Society owes the gratifying report that it is able to make for the year 1916.

MRS. T. J. COPELAND, Prest.

REPORT OF THE CITY MISSION BOARD OF BALTIMORE.

As we close the work of the City Mission Board for the year 1916, we can truly say, "He hath crowned the year with His goodness." It has been in many respects the most successful since our organization.

Every missionary society in the city is represented on this Board, and the increased attendance at the monthly meetings is an evidence of a deeper interest. The Board is well organized, the work being conducted in a systematic manner through standing committees whose duty is to assist the two workers in their several lines of activity.

The expenses continue to increase each year as the work enlarges, but through the efforts of the Finance Committee we have been able to meet our obligations. The Treasurer disbursed $835.40 during the year, this amount being contributed by our various churches in the city, with the exception of $80.00 which was the rebate from the Woman's Missionary Council.

Over 2,300 visits have been made by the workers during the year, many of which were to the sick and sorrowing.

Five hundred dollars is a conservative estimate of the value of clothing, fuel, medicine and food that has been distributed. This material help, coming at a time when it was so greatly needed, has been the means of interesting many in the Church and ultimately bringing about an acceptance of Jesus.

Thanksgiving and Christmas were seasons of great joy, because it was made possible for us to make so many people happy. Many baskets of provisions were sent to worthy families and a treat given to fifty poor children who would not otherwise have had any Christmas cheer at all.

We are relying upon our Heavenly Father to help and sustain us through His earthly representatives in this work.

MRS. R. G. MOWBRAY, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

The Sunday School Board begs leave to submit the following report:

The interest as manifested in the Sunday Schools of our Conference, generally speaking, shows decided advancement not only in the methods employed, but in the actual work accomplished. The great army of Sunday School workers is not only increasing in numbers, but in the appreciation of the important work which has been committed to them. It is our desire to take up special subjects for presentation to all the workers in our Sunday Schools throughout the bounds of the Conference.

DISTRICT ORGANIZATION.

We are gratified to report that in conformity with the recommendations of the General Sunday School Board, district organization has been effected in four of our districts, and that steps are now being taken to complete this organization in the other four remaining districts. This district organization is relegated to the presiding elder of each district and the members of the Sunday School Board living in said district. The organization consists of the selection of suitable Superintendents for each of the departments. When these departments are organized it is expected that these Superintendents will take up the work and organize the same according to uniform system as adopted by the General Sunday School Board.

THE CONFERENCE SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

The last session of the Sunday School Convention was held at Waynesboro, Va., and was not only well attended, but the program as outlined was carried out in a very instructive and helpful manner. The only regret expressed was the large number of Superintendents who failed to take advantage of this splendid occasion. For the year 1917 the convention will be held in the beautiful city of Salem, Va., at such a date as may be fixed by the executive committee after a consultation with the local committee at the place of the convention.

STATISTICS.

The latest statistical report of our General School Board which has been submitted to us at this session of the Conference is necessarily for the year 1915. The numerical increase in the Sunday Schools of our Church at large for the year covered shows a gain of 249 schools, a net increase of 5,655 officers and teachers, and an increase of 116,135 pupils, bringing the aggregate number of schools to 17,117, with total enrollment of 1,847,199. This indicates a remarkable growth for one year. We rejoice to report that the Baltimore Conference Sunday Schools have made their contribution to this general prosperity of the Sunday School work by an increase in enrollment of 3,159, giving us a grand total of 6,492 officers and teachers and 71,286 pupils in 633 schools.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PUBLICATIONS.

The Sunday School publications of our Church are of the highest and best character, and of which we should be justly proud. We note with considerable interest the satisfactory treatment of the Sunday School lessons, and especially the character of the literature used in our graded systems. It is the consensus of opinion of Sunday School experts that our literature possesses the very highest merit.

FIELD SECRETARY.

It is the unanimous opinion of your Board that our Sunday School work has been considerably handicapped in its extension as well as its efficiency, by reason of the failure to secure a suitable Field Secretary for our Conference. It is the recorded desire of all the members of our Board that we shall employ a Field Secretary when a proper man, skilled in the work, may be procured.

SUNDAY SCHOOL MEETINGS AT LAKE JUNALUSKA.

It is with pleasure that we call attention of the Sunday School workers of our Conference to the instructive programs arranged for the Conference Board Chairmen, Field Secretaries, School of Methods, and Wesley Bible Class Conference, that are advertised for Lake Junaluska, N. C., July 24 to August 5, 1917. We cannot urge upon our workers too strongly and emphatically the necessity of their attendance upon these conferences of instruction.

ORGANIZED CLASSES.

The necessity of the organization of Wesley Bible Classes we regard as of paramount importance, and we cannot too greatly emphasize the same. It is our deliberate conviction that these organized classes fill a long felt want, and bring into the school thousands of Bible students who are otherwise not reached. To this end we commend the efficient and splendid work being done by our much beloved Rev. Chas. D. Bulla, D.D., at Nashville, Tenn. We desire to record our deep appreciation of the presence of Dr. Bulla in our meetings at this session of the Conference and his valuable suggestions.

TEACHER TRAINING.

In this connection we desire sincerely to extend to Rev. John W. Shackford, the Superintendent of Teacher Training, our hearty co-operation and appreciation of his work in this department of our Sunday School. We recognize the importance of the better equipment of our present teaching force, and respectfully insist that, in so far as is practicable, all of our Sunday Schools which have not hitherto organized a teacher training class shall no longer delay.

CHILDREN'S DAY.

Our Board announces to the Sunday Schools of the Conference that suitable and appropriate programs will be furnished at the expense of the Board for Children's Day. There is only one condition imposed, and that is that the offerings taken on Children's Day be turned over to the local treasurer and by him turned over at once to the pastor, who shall transmit the same to Brother O. C. Michael, who is the Treasurer of the Sunday School Board, and whose post office address is Aberdeen, Md. We note the gradual increase of the collections taken on Children's Day, but it is apparent to us that sufficient emphasis is not given to the collections, the importance of which is recognized as constituting the only source of revenue of our Board, in enabling us to do our work and assisting needy Sunday Schools of the Conference whose demands are more or less frequent. Besides this, we have a consuming desire to secure an offering from every charge within the Conference. It is our purpose to publish annually an honor roll consisting of the amounts given by the respective charges in the various districts of our Conference and append the same as a part of our report, which will be duly published as was the case last year in the Minutes of the Conference. The sum raised this year will be ascertained by reference to the itemized, tabulated statement of the Treasurer of this Board.

ANNIVERSARY.

It has been our custom for the past ten years, with possibly one exception, to observe our Sunday School Anniversary on Thursday night of the Conference Week. With the approbation of the Conference, we desire to continue this custom at the next session of our Conference on Thursday night.

PENNANTS.

Again this Conference year the Board offered two pennants in recognition of the best showing in connection with Children's Day offering. It will be remembered that one pennant was to be awarded to the District indicating the largest proportionate gain for the entire Conference year, whilst the other pennant was to be given to the District having the largest proportion of its offerings in the hands of the Treasurer of the Board by the first day of January, 1917. An examination of the receipts by the Board of the respective districts entitled the Baltimore District to the pennant for the largest proportional increase, and Rockingham District for the greatest proportion of its offering in the hands of the Treasurer January 1, 1917.

IN CONCLUSION.

It is with grateful acknowledgment to our Heavenly Father that we note the very large number of conversions which have occurred in our various Sunday Schools during the present Conference year. This illustrates the consecrated work that is being so effectively done by our faithful workers in the Sunday Schools, and exemplifies the chief end for which our Sunday Schools were instituted.

COMMITTEE ON PUBLISHING INTERESTS—REPORT No. 1.

ON THE "BALTIMORE SOUTHERN METHODIST."

Your Committee begs leave to make the following report:

The wisdom of our last Conference's strong endorsement of the paper has been more than justified by practical results. It has had one of the best years in its history in the face of one of the worst years in the history of American journalism. Largely due to the moral and material support of the Conference, the Company has been enabled to improve the mechanical appearance of the paper and to publish once a month, in addition to the other numbers, a twenty-four paged, illustrated issue featuring some interest of the Church. This innovation has proved to be the most popular enterprise ever undertaken by the paper, and has strengthened its hold on its readers and has enlarged its field of influence and usefulness.

The Conference for its part has added more than fourteen hundred new subscribers to the subscription list, over two hundred in excess of the number promised, and it is hoped that it will measure up as well proportionately on the assessment. This commendable achievement has not been accomplished by any feat of legerdemain, but by persistent work, as the paper, like everything else religious, must be pressed upon the people, especially in these days of trashy literature. But the putting of our Conference organ into these fourteen hundred new homes has been worth far more than the cost, on account of its contribution to the progress of the Church, by teaching our people loyalty, building them up in life and character, and quickening their interest in all of the causes of our Lord.

The plan which your Publishing Company tried out with such success this year has been watched with no little interest by other Conferences, with the result that to date fifteen of them have adopted its salient features. Thus, the plan that has been so successfully used by your paper has been adopted in part at least by other papers in the connection, and gives promise of putting them upon a more solid financial basis.

The coming year, however, will be a more trying one for religious journalism than last, as many of the papers have been compelled to make new contracts calling for a large advance in price, because of the enormous increase in the cost of production—everything in connection with the printing business has soared, paper, ink, wire, and labor. The Baltimore Southern Methodist has made what it considered a most favorable contract, but the increased cost of its publication will be at least $1,200 over that of the year just past.

By careful business management and practicing the most rigid economy, the paper has succeeded in carrying over a little balance both last year and this year, by which, with what it hopes to get from the assessment in excess of the editor's salary, and by means of the plan herein-after submitted, it will endeavor to tide over the present crisis.

While other papers in the connection have reduced their size or increased their subscription price, your paper desires to do neither. It recognizes the fact that it is in business to do good, and that its potential good can be made actual in proportion to the wideness of its circulation. Therefore, it is averse to doing anything that will interfere with its present substantial subscription list of 7,500, with subscribers in thirty-seven different States and several foreign countries. It cannot reduce its size and care for the growing interests demanding recognition in its columns; it cannot increase its subscription price without ceasing to go into many homes where it is most needed.

We know of no better plan to encourage and aid our paper in these critical times than the one which was adopted by our Conference last year, with some slight modifications. It is true that the repetition will deprive it of the force of novelty, but that should not militate seriously against it. Trained men do not need novelty to stimulate them to do what they know should be done. By this plan the Conference will be enabled to offset the normal losses caused by discontinuances from death, removal and indifference, which total about a thousand a year. When the labor of securing this number is distributed among the preachers it entails but a minimum on each. This arrangement will not only strengthen the paper financially, but will strengthen the editor's hands by assisting him in the heavy task of keeping up the circulation, and enabling him to give more time to the business management and editorial work of the paper.

Therefore, in view of the foregoing, we recommend:

First—That we, as a Conference, congratulate the Publishing Company upon its prosperous financial year in the face of tremendous odds, and also upon the large circulation of the Conference paper.

Second—That we repledge our hearty support to the paper, first, by giving due diligence to the assessment, with the understanding that all in excess of the editor's salary be used to help meet the additional expense, and, second, by employing our best efforts to secure, during the month of May of the coming year, at least a thousand new subscribers to offset the normal losses. We recommend that the Joint Board of Finance distribute the thousand new subscribers to be secured among the districts on an equitable basis, and that the District Stewards redistribute the number assigned to their districts to the several charges as the minimum, taking into consideration, however, in the distribution, the number that was secured on each charge last year, as some charges were more thoroughly canvassed than others, and consequently in such charges less material was left to be reached. It will be understood that an earnest effort is all that is expected of our preachers, and that any preacher will be without blame if he fails to secure the number allotted to his charge, after such effort has been made. The management of the paper, with the assistance of the Presiding Elders, is authorized to carry these provisions into effect, and our preachers are requested to begin this canvass promptly on the first of May, and continue it until the minimum number at least is secured.

Third—That the large illustrated number of the paper be continued each month, as long as the financial condition of the company justifies its publication.

Fourth—That the assessment be the same as last year, and that the price of the paper remain unchanged.

Fifth—That nothing in this report shall be construed as authorizing the Publishing Company to involve the Conference in any debt whatever.

COMMITTEE ON PUBLISHING INTERESTS--REPORT No. 2.

It being our sincere conviction that the Baltimore Southern Methodist is doing a great educational and spiritual work among our people, we therefore respectfully request the presiding Bishop to appoint Rev. C. D. Harris, D.D., Editor and Business Manager for the ensuing year.

COMMITTEE ON PUBLISHING INTERESTS--REPORT No. 3.

Your Committee on Publishing Interests would report as follows:

We have carefully examined the report of the Publishing House made at the close of the fiscal year ending February 29, 1916, and we are pleased to note that, while the year has been a trying and perplexing one to all publishers, yet our House shows a net gain in the amount of business done. It is especially pleasing to note the progress made by the Richmond Branch. The courtesy and promptness which our orders received here should encourage all our preachers and people to place their orders with this House.

We regret to note that three of our leading publications are published at considerable loss to the publishers, which very materially decreases our net profits. The Quarterly Review has 3,800 subscribers and has a deficit of $698.59; the Christian Advocate, 15,000 subscribers, and shows a loss of $7,497.98; and the Epworth Era, 21,000 subscribers, and shows a loss of $3,157.10. This is not as it should be, for the answer to the sensational matter coming from the public press today in sane religious journalism. This is found in the periodicals of our Church; so let us feel that we have a part in this work, which has for its end the building up of character, strengthening our faith in God and in our fellow-man, for surely as never before this is the work of the Lord.

The crying need in our Church is information and education. Much of this need is due to the fact that our people have not been encouraged to read, and many of them do not know what to read nor where to find reading matter. We therefore earnestly urge our ministers to call attention to the periodicals published by our Church; also to the large number of tracts and books that can be procured at such reasonable prices from our Publishing House, and encourage them to invest something in these for the future welfare of the children in our homes.

Finally, your Committee would recommend that earnest prayer may be made that the blessing of God be upon these agencies for good in the bounds of our Conference.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

The Committee on Sabbath Observance submits the following report:

We believe that the divinely given Lord's Day, the Christian Sabbath, set apart by the church and the nation as a day of rest and worship—so far as it has been properly observed—has been one of the greatest bulwarks of the church and of the nation. The horrible conditions of war among the most civilized nations of the world are due to the neglect of men to properly study and apply the great moral and ethical laws contained in the Word of God, and this neglect is largely due to the fact that many who profess to believe the Word of God do not use the Sabbath for the moral and spiritual uplift of man, as commanded in the Mosaic Law and exemplified by Our Lord Jesus Christ.

We, therefore, recommend that a more thorough study of the subject engage the best thought of all our ministers and laymen, and that, after earnest prayer to Almighty God for His guidance, we use the time and means necessary to secure for the church and the nation a more profitable observance of this day.

We recommend co-operation with all churches and other organizations so far as that co-operation will administer to this end.

We especially commend the great aims and accomplishments of the Lord's Day Alliance of Maryland, and the self-sacrificing devotion of Dr. W. W. Davis and Dr. Howard A. Kelly in visiting and assisting all religious organizations in this work.

We recommend that all our preachers and laymen discourage the practice existing in some places of making the Sabbath a day of convenience for funeral services.

We would have them discourage the distribution of ordinary mail and Sunday newspapers, and also such diversions and social engagements as interfere with attendance upon the ministry of the Word from the pulpit, in the Sunday School, Epworth Leagues, Class Meetings, Prayer Meetings or other gatherings for the purpose of the study of the Word of God, and the development of Christian character.

In accordance with the request of the Lord's Day Alliance of Maryland, we recommend that seven representatives of our Church be appointed by the Presiding Elders to co-operate with said Alliance in the following Districts: Three in the Baltimore District, two in the Washington District, and two in the Moorefield District.

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

The warfare on the legalized liquor traffic continues with ever increasing victories. The national conscience is stirred relative to this all important issue as at no previous time, and the people are determined that this great evil of colossal proportions shall meet its Waterloo.

The liquor traffic is nation-wide in its organization, character and influence, ignoring and defying a just and fair administration of both state and national laws. Hence, we will continue to pray and work for National Prohibition as the only real solution of the liquor question, and hereby urge the honorable gentlemen of the Congress of the United States to pass a bill submitting to the vote of the States a Constitutional Amendment prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors within the territory of the United States.

We pledge anew our sympathy and support to the Anti-Saloon League of America in its masterly leadership for National Prohibition. Furthermore, we endorse the splendid achievements of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, and all other organizations working in harmony for the advance in temperance legislation.

We most heartily endorse the resolution of our last General Conference, namely:

"Resolved, That we endorse the great work which has been done by the Anti-Saloon League in its National and State organizations, and we pledge our support in the accomplishment of this great work. We urge our people to remember that the Liquor Traffic hates the Anti-Saloon League because of its effective work, and endeavors to destroy its effectiveness by exciting suspicion against its leaders. We pledge to these leaders our loyalty and assure them we will not desert them in the hour of battle because of the slanders of the enemy, but that we will rally even more earnestly to their standards and give them our undivided support."

We are delighted to note the progress that the cause of temperance has made within our own Conference territory.

The crying need in our Church is information and education. Much of this need is due to the fact that our people have not been encouraged to read, and many of them do not know what to read nor where to find reading matter. REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

The warfare on the legalized liquor traffic continues with ever increasing victories. The national conscience is stirred relative to this all important issue as at no previous time, and the people are determined that this great evil of colossal proportions shall meet its Waterloo.

The liquor traffic is nation-wide in its organization, character and influence, ignoring and defying a just and fair administration of both state and national laws. Hence, we will continue to pray and work for National Prohibition as the only real solution of the liquor question, and hereby urge the honorable gentlemen of the Congress of the United States to pass a bill submitting to the vote of the States a Constitutional Amendment prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors within the territory of the United States.

We pledge anew our sympathy and support to the Anti-Saloon League of America in its masterly leadership for National Prohibition. Furthermore, we endorse the splendid achievements of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, and all other organizations working in harmony for the advance in temperance legislation.

We most heartily endorse the resolution of our last General Conference, namely:

"Resolved, That we endorse the great work which has been done by the Anti-Saloon League in its National and State organizations, and we pledge our support in the accomplishment of this great work. We urge our people to remember that the Liquor Traffic hates the Anti-Saloon League because of its effective work, and endeavors to destroy its effectiveness by exciting suspicion against its leaders. We are delighted to note the progress that the cause of temperance has made within our own Conference territory.

MARYLAND.

We commend the fight made by the temperance forces of the State of Maryland under the leadership of the Anti-Saloon League for the submission of the question of State-wide Prohibition to a vote of the people, and deeply lament the defeat of said measure by the State Legislature, after a majority of both Houses had pledged their constituents, prior to their election, that they would support such enactment if elected. Furthermore, we rejoice in the measure of progress evidenced in the vote outside of Baltimore, but we deeply deplore the decisive vote cast by the "wets" in the City of Baltimore at the last election.

VIRGINIA.

We rejoice to know that on the first day of November of last year the liquor traffic was abolished in the "Old Dominion," and that the recent State Legislature conserved the results of the victory so recently made. Furthermore, we trust the people will continue to elect such representatives as will be true to the pledges they may make to their constituency and thus perpetuate the great and noble work of temperance that has been inaugurated.

We endorse the untiring efforts of the Rev. Dr. James Cannon and Rev. J. Sidney Peters, both of the Virginia Conference, the latter as the "Commissioner of Prohibition," and who has wrought well in the enforcement of the law, and also commend the Act of the Legislature for placing at his disposal an adequate sum to enforce prohibitory legislation.

WEST VIRGINIA.

We rejoice in the moral and commercial benefits which have accrued through State-wide Prohibition legislation, as demonstrated in West Virginia, where prohibition really prohibits, as it always does when the laws are properly enforced.

We commend the Commissioner of Prohibition, Mr. Fred Blue, for his successful efforts in bringing to justice those individuals and companies which have endeavored to transport illegally and traffic unlawfully in intoxicating liquor.

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA.

We are deeply grateful to our Heavenly Father for the remarkable progress made by our National Government relative to temperance legislation:

First—Evidenced in the Supreme Court decision that the Webb-Kenyon Law was constitutional;

Second—In Congress passing, by such a large majority, the Anti-Shipping Bill and the Anti-Advertising Bill;

Third—The marvelous triumph of Congress over the liquor traffic in voting dry the District of Columbia. What a glorious example is given to the nation in this wonderful achievement!

RESOLUTIONS

First—That we commend our Conference Organ, the Baltimore Southern Methodist, for its vigorous and uncompromising editorial policy relative to the liquor traffic in all temperance campaigns waged in our Conference territory.

Second—That our pastors are hereby urged to open their pulpits to the representatives of the Anti-Saloon League and to co-operate with their representatives in their endeavors to secure funds to pay off the indebtedness caused by the various campaigns, and to continue to solicit the same whenever needed.

Third—That we deem it highly incumbent upon Maryland's "dry" constituency to launch a new fight for a genuine State-wide prohibition bill, particularly because of dry legislation in adjacent territories, namely, Virginia, West Virginia and the District of Columbia, and that we pledge ourselves and churches to fight this sworn enemy of all good until complete victory is won.

Fourth—That we ask our people to beware of the baneful influence of those newspapers whose editorials defend the liquor interests, and are diametrically opposed to all efforts of temperance legislation.

Fifth—That we authorize the Secretary to send a letter of thanks and appreciation to the several gentlemen in Congress within the bounds of our Conference who rang true in the recent temperance legislation.

REPORT OF VISITORS TO THE MARYLAND GENERAL HOSPITAL.

Your Committee, appointed at the last session of the Conference to visit the Maryland General Hospital, desires to make the following report :

The Hospital has experienced the best year in its history since it came under the jurisdiction of the Methodists:

Improvements have been made in providing better and more ample quarters for the nurses and in increasing the number of rooms for patients, thereby adding to the financial income of the Hospital.

During the month of February a campaign was waged in the City of Baltimore to raise funds in order to cancel the indebtedness of the Hospital and put it on a sound financial basis, which resulted in realizing over $170,000.00. There is no reason why very soon the Maryland General Hospital will not be the equal of any within our bounds.

We recommend that our Conference sympathetically co-operate with the Methodist Hospital Association in its work in every way possible, but without in any way incurring any financial obligations thereby, or becoming responsible for its management in any sense that would bind our Annual Conference legally, financially or morally.

We request the preachers of the Conference to commend the Hospital to our people for their patronage, and that each pastoral charge at the discretion of the pastor observe one Sabbath in the year to be known as "Hospital Sunday," and the sacramental collection of that day be given to the Hospital Association.

JOHN WILLIAM SMITH.

MEMOIRS

VINCENT WHALEY WHEELER.

(Born September 26, 1847. Died in the Lord, August 27, 1916.)

Vincent Whaley Wheeler came of a long line of Methodist ancestors. His great-grandfather, Charles Wheeler of Maryland, early in the eighteenth century, cast in his lot with "the people called Methodists" at a time when it required no little sacrifice to do so. In order to live up to the teachings of his Church, he freed all his slaves. His home was the stopping place for the pioneer itinerants. Freeborn Garrettson and Caleb B. Peticord were frequent visitors there, and on one occasion Caleb Peticord found refuge and comfort there when bleeding from the cruel treatment of an angry mob.

His father, Samuel Ruffin Wheeler, was a member of the Holston Conference, and by many who yet remember him was considered a preacher of unusual ability and power. His mother was Elizabeth Jones Wheeler.

He was born in Carroll County, Virginia, September 26, 1847, but when quite young the family moved to Wythe County, where he had his schooling. Later he was taught by Rev. W. W. Headrick.

Being the son of a Methodist preacher, he had early and thorough training in the doctrines and usages of the Church. He was required to give much time to the study of Scripture, and throughout his life could quote at liberty chapter after chapter of God's Word.

He was converted and joined the Church when sixteen years old, and in the same year, 1863, with his brother, joined the Confederate Army and served until the close of the war.

In 1868 he was married to Mrs. Emma Ward Kyle, who lived only a few years and died leaving him a son, who grew to young manhood and followed his mother to the grave.

Brother Wheeler felt called to preach in early life, but did not heed the call until after the death of his mother. Then in 1872, under the Rev. John L. Gilbert, Presiding Elder of the Lewisburg District, he was licensed to preach and was appointed as supply to Frankford Circuit. His first meeting was one of unusual power and spread from church to church until hundreds had been won to Christ and the Church.

In March, 1873, he was admitted on trial in the Baltimore Annual Conference, ordained Deacon in 1875 by Bishop Marvin, and Elder in 1877 by Bishop Kavanaugh. From this time until 1893 he served the Church with great devotion. In 1894 he withdrew from the Conference and the Church, from which time until 1907, when he again took work in the Conference as supply, he frequently helped his brethren in conducting protracted meetings. In 1911 he was readmitted into the Conference on trial and into full connection in 1913. In 1914, because of failing health, he was forced to give up the work he loved and retire to a little home in Clifton Forge, Virginia, where among his family and friends he awaited the call to come up higher. As the summer of 1916 passed, Brother Wheeler grew weaker and weaker. Conscious of his approaching end, he used often to quote the lines:

"Happy if with my latest breath
I may but gasp His name,
Preach Him to all and cry in death:
Behold, behold the Lamb!"

and when, in the quiet of a Sabbath morning, the end did come it found the weary traveller ready to enter into the joy of his Lord.

The official members of Central Church, who had long known and loved him, asked for the honor of bearing the fallen warrior to his last resting place in Crown Hill Cemetery, which overlooks the city whose people he had loved and served.

Rev. John Paul Tyler, pastor of the church, assisted by Rev. R. L. Fultz, Presiding Elder of the Lewisburg District; Rev. S. K. Cockrell, of Lewisburg, and Rev. L. S. Shires, of Selma, conducted the funeral services. At the grave Rev. Harry V. Wheeler, his son, also a member of the Baltimore Conference, pronounced the benediction.

In February, 1876, Brother Wheeler married Miss Laura May Pollock, of Greenbrier County, West Virginia. To them were born four children, all of whom with the wife survive him. Every one of the children is a devoted member of their father's church. They are Mrs. Emma Wheeler Dudley (John F.), Rev. Harry Vincent Wheeler, of the Baltimore Conference; Mr. Frank H. Wheeler, for years president of the Official Board of Central Church, Clifton Forge, and Mr. Samuel Robert Wheeler, of Alderson, West Va.

Brother Wheeler was a man of tremendous physical power. He said of himself that he had never met a man stronger than himself, and those who knew him could easily believe it. Yet with all his strength he was as tender and gentle as a child. As a preacher he was a power, especially in conducting protracted meetings. As he proclaimed God's love his face would light up and all who heard were soon under the spell of his message. His preaching was always soundly Scriptural.

He served the following charges in our Conference: Frankford Circuit, as junior preacher, 1872; Summer's Circuit (now Hinton), 1873; White Sulphur Station, 1875-76; Blue Sulphur Circuit, 1877-78; Levelton Circuit, 1879-1882; Prince George Circuit, 1883; Lexington Circuit, 1884-86; Roanoke Circuit, 1887-89; Clifton Forge, 1890-92; Alleghany, as supply, 1907-08; Williamsburg, 1909, 1910, 1911, 1912; New Hope, 1913, 1914.

To the life and labors of Vincent Whaley Wheeler, Methodism owes as much, if not more, than to any other man for her strong influence in the western section of the Baltimore Conference.

“Now the laborer’s task is o’er,
Now the battle day is past,
Now upon the farther shore
Lands the voyager at last.
Father, in thy gracious keeping,
Leave we now thy servant sleeping.”

BISHOP ALPHEUS WATERS WILSON.

It has been a special privilege of this Conference to carry the name of Alpheus Waters Wilson upon our roll of members. It is now our sad duty to number him with those who have this year “died in the Lord.” No expression possible to this paper can adequately set forth our sense of personal loss in his removal from our midst. His name has in it more to us in the Old Baltimore Conference than it can possibly have to any other section of the Church which he served with so great distinction in the larger ministry as General Missionary Secretary or Bishop. He was our very own, and it is a joy to know that he held this Conference in his heart of hearts during all his long and varied service to the whole Church. The older men of the Conference, who were his associates in the early days of his ministry, were always his close companions and friends, and he regarded the younger preachers with the interest and affection of a loving and tender father. It was to this Conference, indeed, that he looked to embody and perpetuate the achievements in thought and character of his own life, and to maintain the policy of apostolic evangelism which was the constructive principle of his preaching and leadership. His unique place among us was held not only because of his masterful intellectual ability, but by the spiritual authority of personal interest and sympathy. With the greatest solicitude he watched the incoming class of each year, and followed the career of each man with hope and prayer.

His intense interest in our Conference was the natural outcome of his relation to it for over a half-century. He was, by virtue of his great ability, the leading spirit in the Conference during one of the most tragic and distressing storms that ever swept over the Church of God. He felt the fire of fierce persecution. He knew the bitter experience of the alienation of former friends and the crushing weight of the iron hand of war. True to the divine commission to preach the Gospel of truth and justice and love, sure of the moral support of the old Conference, he maintained our cause with a heroism that entered into every fiber of the Conference itself. Over half a century has passed since those fateful days, and in that length of years he has walked with us in holy comradeship of a passion that still burns upon our altars. Our Conference, under his inspiring leadership, stood the shock of war, and by the same influence stands today, without hate or bitterness, welcoming every move to unite the forces of our Church in the common struggle for the supremacy of our imperial Lord and King.

In this brief paper we do not seek to declare what manner of man this was. This task must be left to the future historian of our Church. It is our sacred duty now only to record a loving tribute to his memory.

Bishop Alpheus Waters Wilson was born in Baltimore, Maryland, February 5th, 1834, the son of Rev. Norval and Cornelia Howland Wilson. His father had hardly a less conspicuous place in the Baltimore Conference than his distinguished son. He was one of the masterful men who held membership in the General Conferences during the stormy period preceding the separation of the Church in 1844. From that time he was one of the leaders who held the Conference true to the pledge it made to its lay constituents at the Conference of March, 1845. He was president of that part of the Conference which met at Bridgewater, Va., in March, 1864, and of the memorable Conference held in Alexandria, Va., February, 1866, at which time the Baltimore Conference united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. He wrote the resolution which by its adoption severed the relation of the Conference with the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church at the Staunton Conference, March, 1861. Thus through his father Bishop Wilson was in closest touch with the events of historic importance in the years preceding his own active leadership. He entered the local ministry in the spring of 1852 and served as a supply on Charles Circuit with Rev. Robert Smith as his colleague. He was admitted on trial the next year, when but nineteen years of age. He was licensed to preach under the administration of his father, was ordained a Deacon by Bishop Scott, March 11th, 1855, and an Elder by Bishop Waugh, March 8th, 1857.

His first appointment was to Jefferson Circuit as junior preacher with Rev. W. G. Eggleston. As junior preacher, he served Berryville, 1854. Loudoun, 1855, and Patapsco, 1856.

His first appointment as preacher-in-charge was to Warm Springs in 1857, and he was sent to Blue Sulphur in 1858. At the Conference of 1859 he took a supernumerary relation. In 1860 he again took active work and was sent to Eutaw Street Church, Baltimore, Maryland.

At the close of the historic Staunton Conference of March, 1861, he was again assigned to Eutaw Street Church, and remained in charge during the first year of the Civil War. During this year the military line ran through the Conference territory and divided it for the time being. In March, 1862, the Conference which met at Light Street

Church, Baltimore, claimed to constitute the original Baltimore Conference, and was attended by most of the preachers in the city and State of Maryland, and held jurisdiction over all the churches. Bishop Wilson, with five other preachers and a large following of laymen, remained away from this Conference, and continued in an independent relation until February, 1866, when they met with the reunited Conference at Alexandria, Va., and cast their lot with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. He had kept his word, but it was at the loss of all that he possessed. To meet his financial obligations he retired from the active ministry, and in 1866 took a superannuate relation and was on the supernumerary list during the years 1867, 1868 and 1869. During these years he practiced law in Baltimore City, and gained a wide reputation as a constitutional lawyer. Having paid all his debts, he was again put upon the active list March, 1870, and was appointed Presiding Elder of the Washington District, which appointment continued during 1871 and 1872. In 1873 he became pastor of Mt. Vernon Place Church, Washington, and continued in this important pastorate until 1877, when he was sent to Calvary, Baltimore. In March, 1878, he was returned to Calvary, but had served only a month when he was elected Missionary Secretary by the General Conference. By this office he came into contact with the larger ministry of the Church, and his great constructive genius was at once recognized. The territory of the Church had been swept and devastated by the war and the still more cruel outrages of the period of Reconstruction. It took a master spirit to awaken the Church to a new sense of life, and to compel it to look out over its own ashes and sorrows to the regions beyond. The voice that would arouse the people from a state of sad contemplation of their ruined churches and bankrupt estates to a sense of obligation to build first the altar of God for a world-wide ministry, had to speak with the authority and power of a Nehemiah or Haggai. He proved to be the man of the hour. He went through the whole Southland with such a message of commanding power that once more the stricken Church began to feel the impelling obligation of its divine commission to preach the Gospel to every nation. He satisfied the intelligence of the Church and quickened its faith to a passion of service. During this quadrennium he made as large a contribution to the spiritual life of the Church as had come from the ministry of any man in the history of Methodism. At the next General Conference his services were demanded for a yet larger field of influence, and he was elected Bishop on the first ballot. He began the exercise of his episcopal office May, 1882, and thus served the Church in the Episcopacy for thirty-two years, sixteen of which he was Senior Bishop. At our last General Conference, May, 1914, he was retired from active service. Yet even at the advanced age of eighty years his intellectual force was unabated. He had grown to a most exquisite mellowing of spirit. Equipped as hardly any other man in the Church with profound scholarship, chastened by suffering and sorrow, spiritualized by constant devotional reading of the Word of God and prayer, he lingered with us in holy service until the call came and he ceased at once to work and live.

Bishop Wilson received his academic training at various schools where his father was serving as pastor. He attended the Columbian University of Washington, D. C., now George Washington University, and shortly after he was eighteen years of age successfully passed the examinations of a full graduate course. He received the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity from Randolph-Macon College in 1875 and from Victoria University, Toronto, in 1911. The degree of Doctor of Laws was conferred upon him by Central College and Washington and Lee University.

We think of our dear Bishop first of all in the manifold character of his ministry among us. Bishop Hendrix on the occasion of his funeral spoke of him as a four-fold man—a profound student, a great preacher, a wonderful organizer, a commanding bishop. He rendered service during his long ministry in almost every sphere of church activity. In his early ministry he had the experience of a junior preacher serving a year at a time on large circuits. He tasted the hardships of the mountain mission work. No part of his ministry was more often spoken of by him than his experience on Warm Springs and Blue Sulphur missions in the early days. Later he was Presiding Elder, pastor of large city churches, Missionary Secretary and Bishop. His later ministry brought him in contact with a world-wide evangelism. He made six visits to the mission fields in the Orient, on one of which he organized our mission work in Japan. He represented our Church on the commission to organize the Japanese Methodist Church. He visited the Brazilian Mission in 1892 and 1902. He was a member of the Ecumenical Conferences of 1881 in London, 1891 in Washington, 1901 in London, 1911 in Toronto. His commanding influence in leadership was truly wonderful. While truly democratic in spirit and tender in his personal feelings, yet his opinion was deferred to by the greatest men in the councils of the Church.

It is safe to say, however, that the outstanding fact of his ministry was his marvelous intellectual and spiritual grasp of the Word of God. It is but an intimation of his Scriptural scholarship to note that in the last thirteen years he read his Greek Testament seventy-five times. He was equally familiar with Biblical scholarship of the earliest times and the latest results of Biblical research. If his knowledge of the Bible had been purely intellectual it might have found expression in the printed page. But he knew the power of revealed truth also in its spiritual function, and hence it required utterance in the public congregation. By many he was considered the greatest preacher of his generation in any branch of the Christian Church. Bishop Luther Wilson said of him: "I cannot forbear to pay my tribute to him as the mightiest preacher that it has ever been my privilege to hear."

We may narrowly escape being presumptuous to mention the great constructive lines which were especially characteristic of his preaching. Some of these were: The essential unity of the Old and New Testament in the revelation of the will and purpose of God; the divine witness which is alone sufficient to attest a divine fact; the self-attesting power of revealed truth; the essential deity of Christ, who is the image of the invisible God; the fact and quality of Christ's personality as the value and merit of His work of atonement; the direct spiritual illumination of Paul which qualified him for the theological leadership of the church in all ages; the universal function of the church in transforming the world by the word of His truth; the absolute freedom of humanity in Jesus Christ. These at least indicate the general sphere of his preaching. With a voice of commanding quality of tone, and a presence of prophetic mold he delivered his message to a world whose only problem is sin and whose only Saviour is Jesus Christ the Lord. Little of the product of his mind remains in the printed page, but fortunately we have a number of sermons and two books: "Witnesses to Christ" and "The Life and Mind of Paul." Both of these are the results of a series of lectures on these subjects. They are not what are called popular books, but they will remain in Christian literature with ever increasing interest as long as honest minds are seeking to know the things of God.

In his personal life Bishop Wilson was as simple as a little child. He was insensible either to fear or to the artificial distinctions of life. He regarded no man either for his wealth or his learning. It was this quality that made him seem to some sort of men reserved and hard to approach. The little child and the great philosopher were equally familiar with him, provided each was well taught. He loved the reality of life, and spurned and pitied pretense. The writer never heard him criticise a preacher. So men who were called of God preached Christ, he was satisfied.

The family life of Bishop Wilson was exceptionally beautiful. His was a Christian home. He was married in 1857 to Susan Bond Lipscomb, whose name is known in all parts of the world. She was a helpmeet in the true Scriptural meaning. Intellectual, spiritual, consecrated, gentle, she was loved by all. Together they journeyed past the golden celebration of their married life with a mutual devotion that could not be separated by death. God gave them three sons, all of whom died in childhood, and three daughters, Miss Maybelle, Miss Nina and Mrs. Bessie Webber. These remain with the rich inheritance of the fame and character of their distinguished parents.

According to his desire, Bishop Wilson was buried beside his faithful wife in Loudoun Park Cemetery, Baltimore, Md.

He has passed beyond the shadows. We will not see his like again. His name awakens in us a solemn and beautiful reflection upon life.

"What is man that Thou art mindful of him or the son of man that Thou visitest him? Thou hast made him a little lower than God. Thou hast crowned him with glory and honor. Thou hast put all things under his feet. O Lord, our God, how excellent is Thy name in all the earth!"

REV. WM. H. D. HARPER.

Rev. William Henry Driver Harper, son of Dr. Samuel K. and Mrs. Elizabeth Ann Driver Harper, was born on Kent Island, Maryland, January 21st, 1840, and died in Roanoke, Va., January 23rd, 1917.

Through the instruction and influence of the life of his Christian mother, he knew the Scriptures from a child, and at the age of twelve years he was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, in which the family worshiped. His conversion brought with it not only the joy of salvation, but also a sense of his opportunity and obligation as a Christian. Here was the beginning of his active Christian life, which continued with increasingly intelligent zeal until the work of his earthly life was done.

He was educated in the schools of his native county and at Centreville, in Queen Anne's County, Maryland. He left the school at Centreville to accept a position as a teacher in Easton Academy, at Easton, Md., and after six consecutive years of service as a teacher he became the principal of that institution.

During the time of his employment in Easton Academy he studied law in the office of Wm. Clarke, Esq., a practicing attorney of Easton at that time, and in 1861 he was admitted to the bar to practice law in the counties of the State. Inviting fields of activity and usefulness were now open before him and promising prospects encouraged him to enter them. But the call to preach the Gospel of Christ came at this time and arrested his progress in the pursuits upon which he had entered and turned his purpose to the work of the ministry. "What things were gain to him those he counted loss for Christ."

He was licensed to preach by the Quarterly Conference of Easton Circuit, of the Philadelphia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, on the 26th of August, 1861. The following year, on October 28th, 1862, he was married to Miss Sadie Stuart, of Easton, Md. Of this union two children were born, Miss Charlotte E., who, with her mother, survives him, and Miss Sadie Stuart, who died in Baltimore, during her father's term of service as Presiding Elder of the East Baltimore District.

Brother Harper withdrew from the Methodist Episcopal Church and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, when it began its work on the Eastern Shore of Maryland. He assisted in the organization of the work of the Church into which all of his sympathies led him, and gave ungrudging and successful service in the places which were open for preaching.

In 1866, after having served as principal of Easton Academy one year, having fully determined to devote his life to the ministry, he resigned the principalship of that school, very much to the regret of its trustees and patrons, who greatly desired the continuance of his faithful and successful service. At the session of the Baltimore Conference held in Trinity Church, Baltimore, in March, 1867, he received local Deacon's orders and was ordained a Deacon by Bishop George F. Pierce.

At the session of the Conference held in Central Church, Baltimore, in March, 1868, he was received on trial into the travelling connection and appointed as preacher in charge of Bladensburg Circuit. He served this circuit three years, and at the session of the Conference held in Salem, Va., in March, 1871, he was received into full connection and was ordained as Elder by Bishop Pierce. His appointment at this Conference was to South Baltimore Station. He entered upon his work here with much interest, energy and hope. But he was not permitted to continue his work through this year, and had passed through only a few months when he was stricken down by congestion of the lungs, which suspended his labors and forced his retirement for seven years.

In this time of his retirement from the work of the ministry, after his health was sufficiently restored to allow his physical exertion in active employment, he served as clerk of the Commissioners of Talbot County, Maryland, taking up his residence again in Easton, which had become his home town. As his health improved he resumed his active work in the Church, doing what he could, and was instrumental in organizing and setting to work a Young Men's Christian Association in Easton.

Having fully recovered his health, he gave up his work with the Commissioners and declined offers of other positions which offered inducements of greater remuneration, and returned to his regular work in the Conference. At the session of the Conference held in St. Paul's Church, Baltimore, in March, 1878, he was appointed as preacher in charge of Trinity Church in that city. From this time he was able to continue his work without interruption. Having served Trinity Church four years consecutively, he was appointed in March, 1882, to St. Paul's, and after a successful pastorate of four years at this church he was appointed again to Trinity, and served a second term of two years. In March, 1888, he was appointed as Presiding Elder of East Baltimore District; in 1892 he was appointed preacher in charge of Winchester; in 1896, to Harrisonburg; in 1899, to Greene Memorial, Roanoke; in 1902, Presiding Elder of Baltimore District; in 1905, to Winchester District; in 1907, to Vinton; in 1908, to Buena Vista; in 1910, to Glen Wilton; in 1911, to Grace, Roanoke, Va. This was his last appointment. After serving this church one year he retired from the regular work of the ministry, and at the session of the Conference held in Belmont Church, Roanoke, in March, 1912, he was granted a superannuate relation.

In all the places he filled Brother Harper served faithfully and well. He accepted his work in the ministry as a privilege and was fully sensible of the greatness and honor of the holy calling. He believed the Gospel and had the consciousness of its truth in his personal religious experience. He studied to know the truth and the best way to make it known to the people to whom he preached. He was a capable expositor of the Word of God and an earnest, enthusiastic, attractive and able preacher. He was a faithful pastor in his care of the flock over which the Holy Ghost made him the overseer. His recognized ability as a preacher and his fidelity and sympathetic diligence as a pastor commended him to all the people and made him acceptable and efficient in all of our churches.

From early manhood Brother Harper was an intelligent member of the Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons, and was actively identified with that fraternity in all of its interests. He filled all of the offices of the lodge to which he belonged and attained unto the degree of a Knight Templar.

Socially, Brother Harper was one of the most agreeable of Christian gentlemen. Generous, hospitable and attentive, in common with his family, the parsonages which they occupied were made pleasant and lovely homes, in the comforts and pleasures of which their guests were made to share freely and fully. Considerate, affable and cheerful, his association with the people everywhere was genial and pleasant, and he was always a welcome guest in their homes.

Brother Harper was able to preach very little after he finished the work of his last appointment, and was not able to perform any public service most of the time. His strength gradually declined until it entirely failed. But he never lost interest in the Church or its work, and he attended regularly upon its services. Two weeks before he died, on Sunday, January 7th, he attended the service in Greene Memorial Church and assisted in the administration of the sacrament of the Lord's Supper. That was his last attendance at church. On the following Sunday the weather was too inclement for him to go out, and at the morning hour for public worship he had services in his home, alone with his family. On the Sunday following he was confined to his bed, and two days later on Tuesday morning, January 23, he passed away from the presence and loving and tender ministrations of his family into rest. On the day following his death, Wednesday afternoon, a service was held at his late residence conducted by Rev. G. D. White, Presiding Elder of Roanoke District, and participated in by the pastors of our churches in Roanoke, and on Wednesday night his body was taken to Baltimore, accompanied by his wife and daughter, and on Thursday afternoon, January 25th, after a service in Trinity Church conducted by Rev. G. D. White, in which our preachers in Baltimore and others participated, his body was taken to Loudoun Park Cemetery and laid to rest by the side of that of his daughter which sleeps there, to await the resurrection on the last day.

DAVID BUSH.

JOHN SUMMERFIELD ENGLE.

John Summerfield Engle was born in the Methodist parsonage at Churchville, Augusta Co., Va., June 25th, 1868. He was the son of Rev. Joseph J. Engle, who for more than fifty years was an honored member of the Baltimore Conference, and of Isabella Goodwin Engle, who has survived both the husband and the son.

John S. Engle was converted during the pastorate and under the preaching of Rev. John A. Anderson in the early eighties at Berryville, Va. But it was under the preaching of his own father that he finally heard and heeded the call of God to him to make the ministry his life work. Last summer Brother Engle preached at Marvin Chapel, near Berryville, Va. Before announcing his text, he said: "I have preached in many churches within the bounds of the Baltimore Conference, but no other church is as sacred to me as this, for, while listening to a sermon by my father in this house, I resolved firmly and finally to preach."

In 1890 he was admitted into the Baltimore Conference on trial. On March 26, 1892, at Harrisonburg, Va., he was admitted into full connection, and the following day was ordained Deacon by Bishop John C. Keener. On April 1, 1894, at Fredericksburg, Va., he was ordained Elder by Bishop John C. Granbery.

Between the years 1890 and 1905 Brother Engle served the following charges: Brucetown Circuit, Middletown, Grace of Roanoke, Arlington, Front Royal, Salem, Emmanuel of Baltimore. In March, 1905, he was appointed Editor and Manager of the Baltimore Southern Methodist. From 1907 to 1917 he was joint owner and joint principal, with Rev. E. H. Rowe, of the Southern Seminary System of Schools, and also for five years of this period was the resident principal of the Alleghany Collegiate Institute, at Alderson, W. Va., one of the schools of this system.

Before entering the itinerant ministry Brother Engle had been a student for several years in Randolph-Macon College. While pastor at Salem, Va., he matriculated at Roanoke College, and during his pastorate there of four years took both the A.B. and A.M. degrees. While at Emmanuel, Baltimore, he did post-graduate work at Johns Hopkins University. He was also the author of one book, "Analytic Interest Psychology and Synthetic Philosophy," and his name finds a place in "Who is Who in America" and in "Who is Who in the World."

On April 13, 1892, while he was pastor at Middletown, Va., John S. Engle was married to Miss Anna M. Sencindiver, of Darksville, W. Va. To this union came two daughters, Ruth and Isabella.

John S. Engle was a man of remarkable intellectual power, yet he was modest, quiet and unobtrusive in his manner. He was most unselfish, always preferring others before himself. At the funeral service, Rev. E. H. Rowe, his friend and fellow-worker, said of him: "Engle had a great wealth of personality. I have thought of the words of a great man referring to his friend as I have thought of the warmth and glow of his personality: 'It was sweet where he stood, sunny and warm.' I have thought, too, of what Channing wrote on the coffin of his friend, a great man, 'Hail to thee, O man, thou hast come from the transitory place to the imperishable.' So as I sat in my chamber alone, with the vision of a clearer faith, I seemed to look up and see Engle looking down upon me, and the tears I was shedding and the sighs with which my breast was heaving, and saying, with that sweet, subtle smile which those of us that knew him knew so well, which was like a sort of sunlight sifting through some slight overhanging cloud, a smile now no longer subject to the changing moods of flesh and blood, but glorified in the light of the celestial—'Yes, it is all true, and so much more than we ever thought or felt. You do not know what glorious surprises await you.'

"And now as I turn, and see him in his earthly remains, lying there in his coffin before me, I feel it is true of him now—'He sleeps well, after life's fitful fever.' For if it was ever true of a man as was said of Thoreau: 'He did brave work,' it is most certainly true of this man that he did brave work, and those of us that know his life best, somehow feel that few, if any men, ever did their work more bravely."

Death came February 1st, 1917, and the funeral service was conducted in his mother's home at Berryville, Va. Then the body of John Summerfield Engle was laid to rest in Green Hill Cemetery to await "the general resurrection in the last day and the life of the world to come."

*NOTE—By mistake the assessments here given made by the Joint Board of Finance and by the Board of Church Extension, viz.: For the Bishop's Fund, Conference Claimants and Superannuate Endowment, Education, Baltimore Southern Methodist, Conference Expenses and Church Extension are all in excess of the proper amounts for the Alexandria District. Accordingly, the payments here reported by some of the Charges upon these assessments that seem to be deficient, are really in full of the proper amounts that should have been assessed. The proper amounts of these assessments are 87½ per cent of the actual assessments here given.
